

1) I support maintaining limits on the number of broadcast media outlets that may be owned by a single corporation. 2) I urge the FCC to extend the public comment period on this matter for an additional three months, and to conduct additional formal public hearings during that period. It is painfully obvious that the fewer corporate owners of broadcast media outlets the easier it is for the elite to control the information the people receive.